Directions

1

Step one

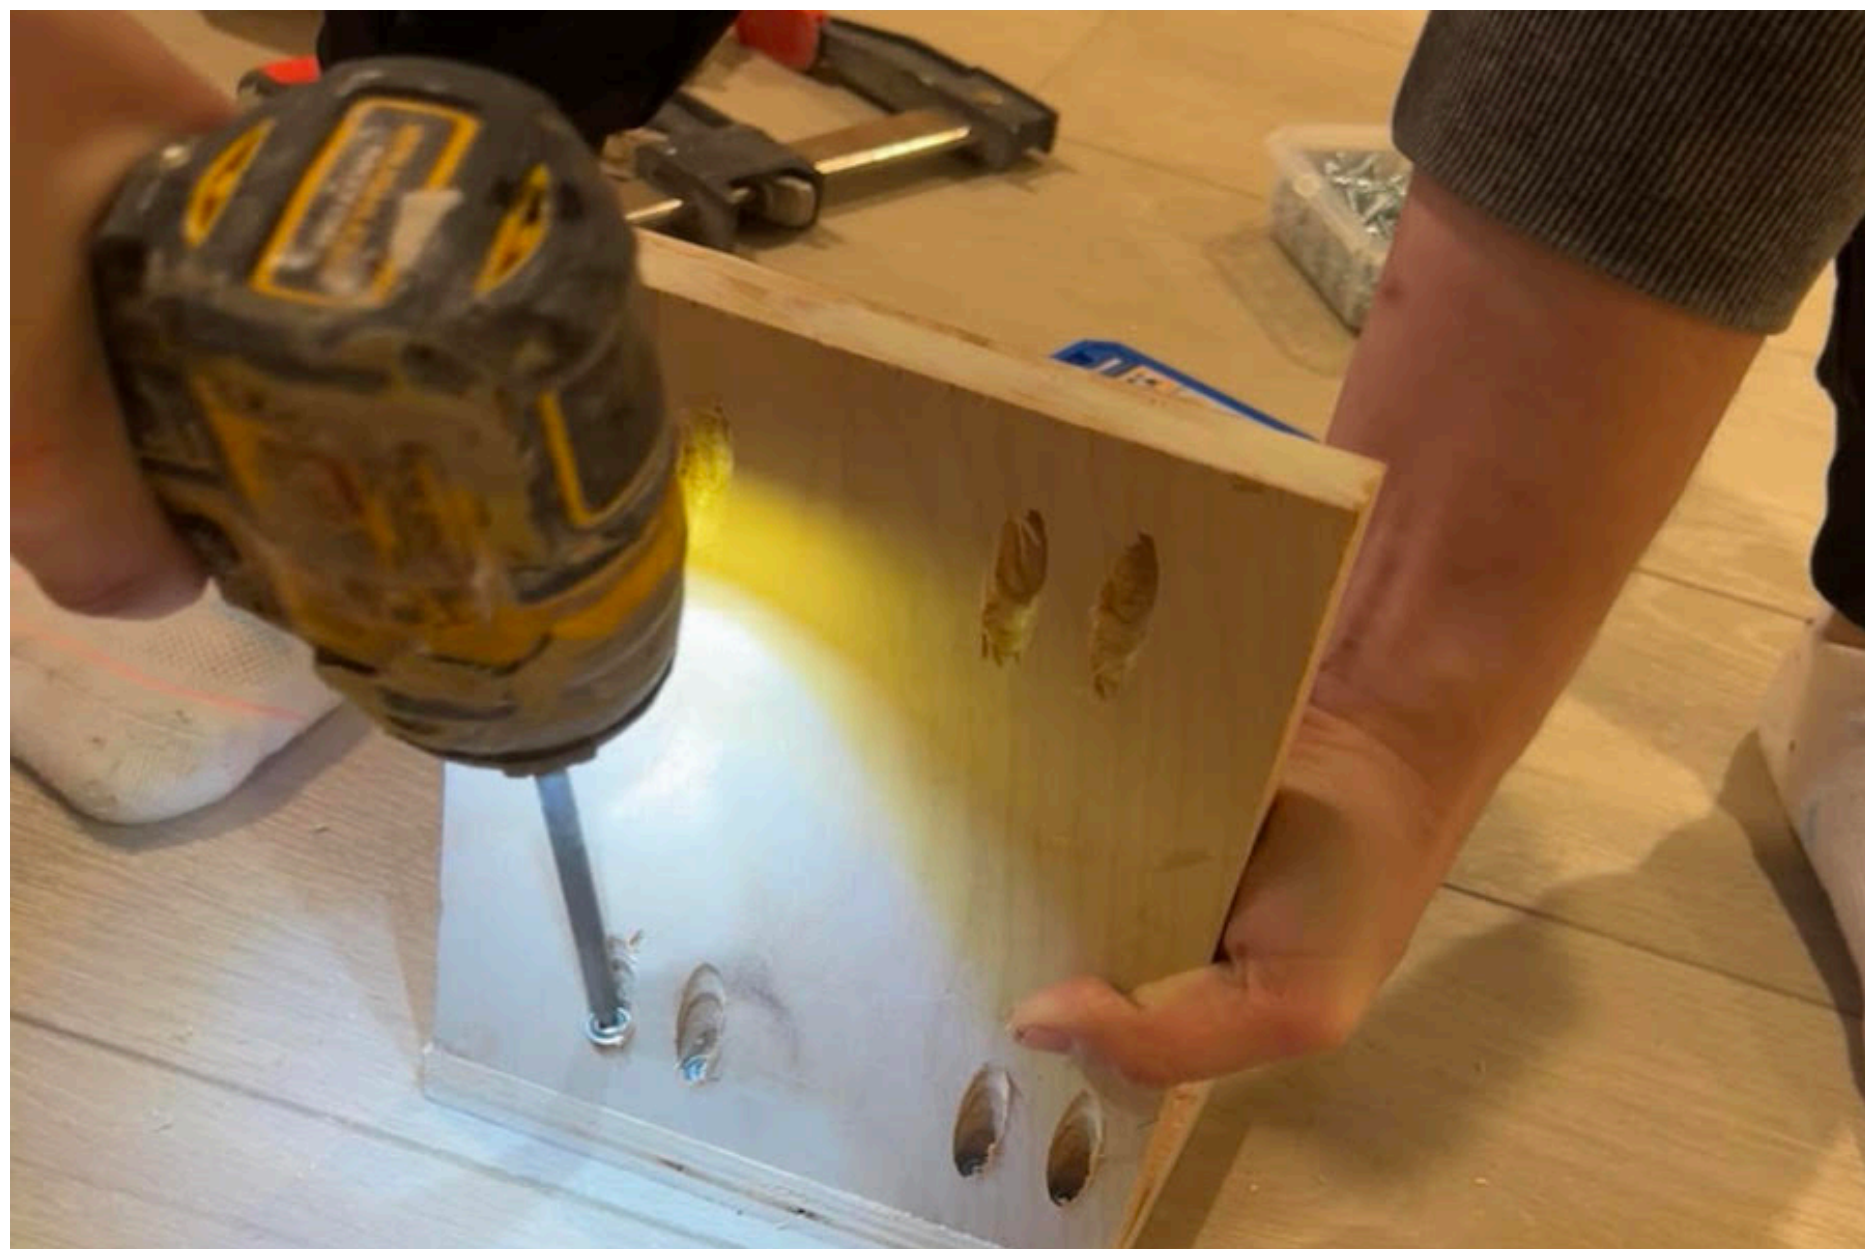

Cut the plywood to size. Set your pocket hole jig and stop collar to $\frac{3}{4}$ ". Pocket hole the top and bottom of the jewelry box. Attach to the sides with $1\frac{1}{4}$ " pocket hole screws and wood glue.

2

Step two

Pocket hole and glue the doors together.

3Step three

Spackle the pocket holes and plywood edges. Optional: edge banding the plywood edges.

4Step four

Rabbet the back side of the box and attach back with nails.

5

Step five

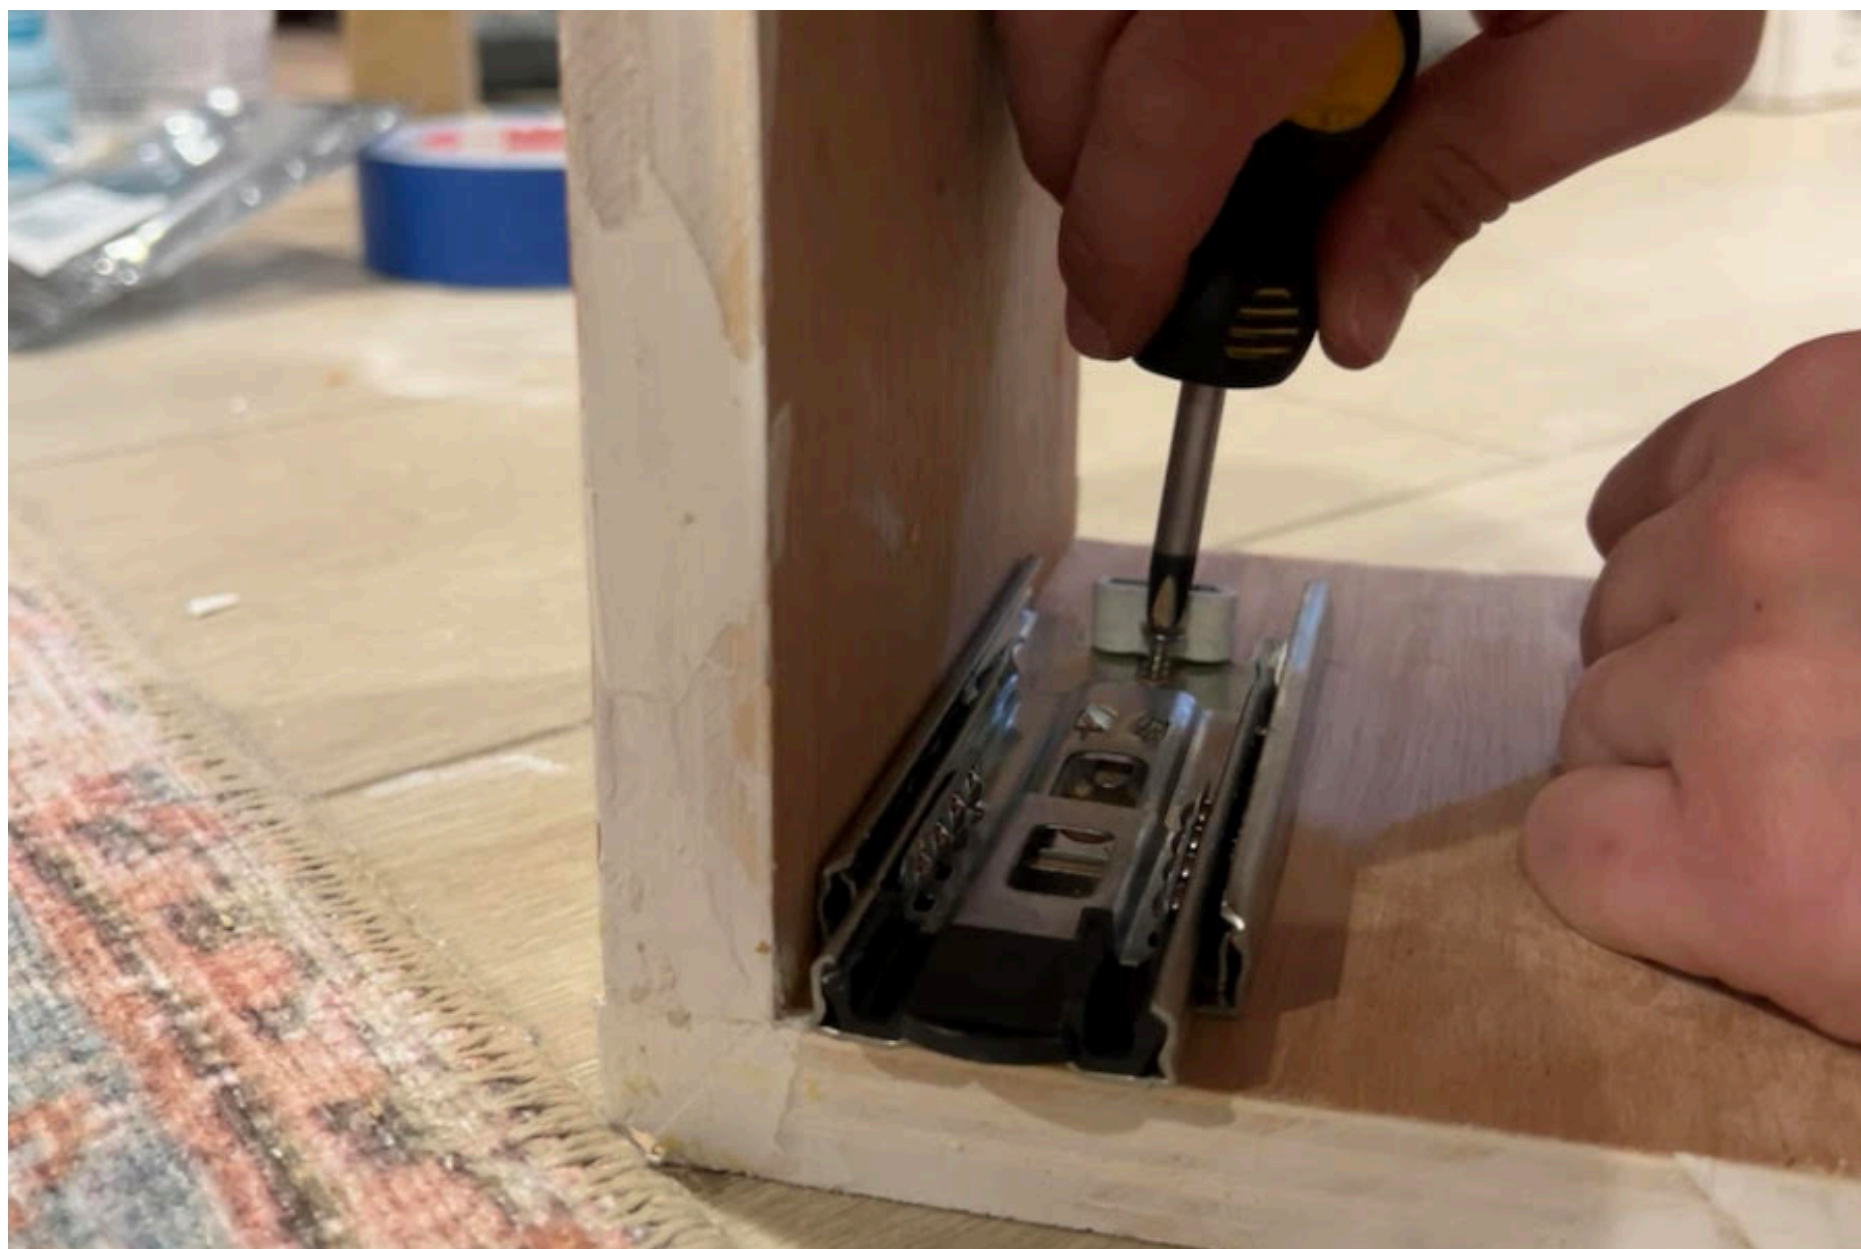

Glue and nail the drawer box together.

6

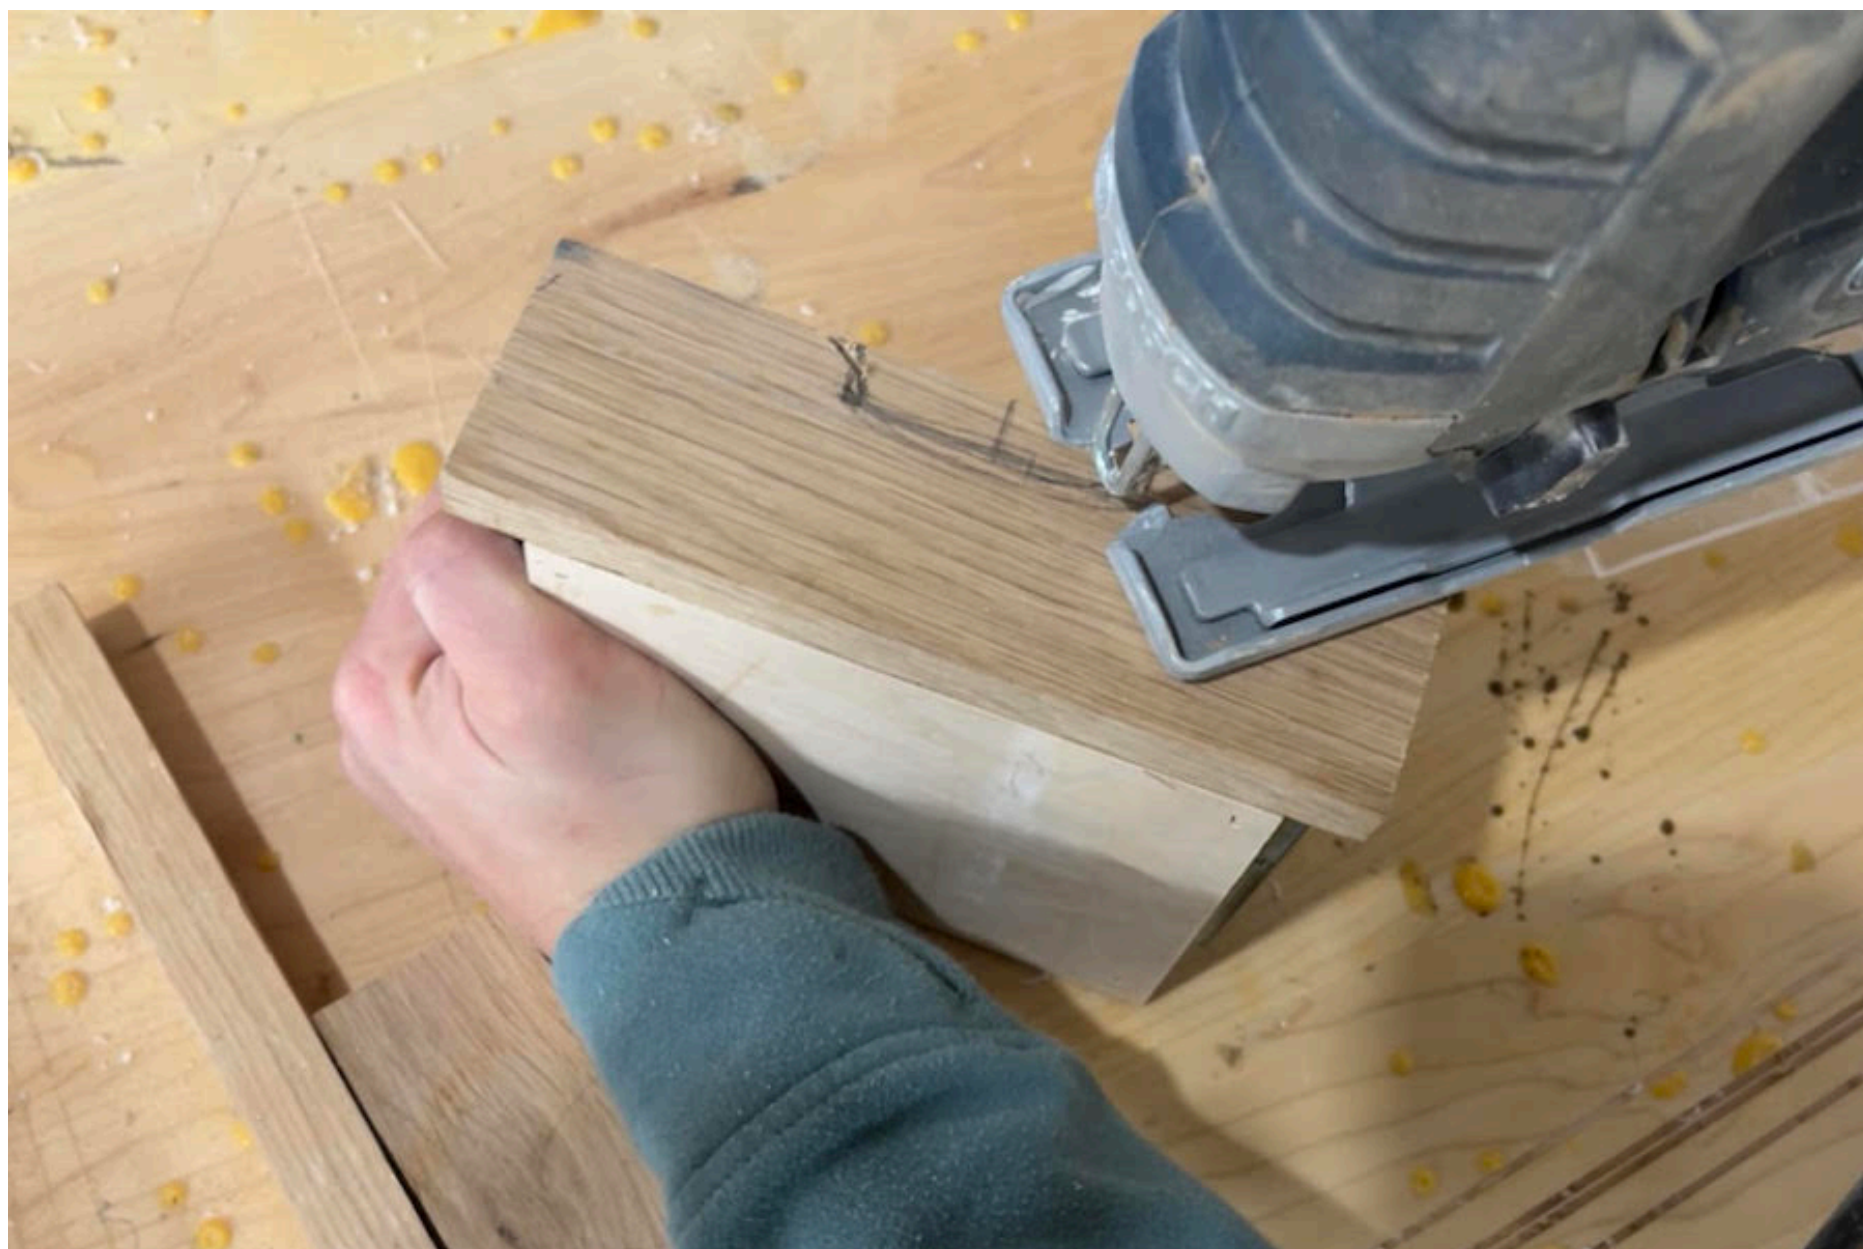

Step six

Attach drawer slides to jewelry box.

7Step seven

Cut drawer front and attach with brad nails.

8Step eight

Pocket hole the divider and attach just above the drawers with screws and glue.

9*Step nine

Find the center of the drawer and cut the handle to the shape and size you want.

10Step ten

Pocket hole the legs and glue to the underside of the main box. Make sure the pocket holes face down so they aren't visible.

11Step eleven

Paint the main box, insides, legs and door with the color of your choice.

12

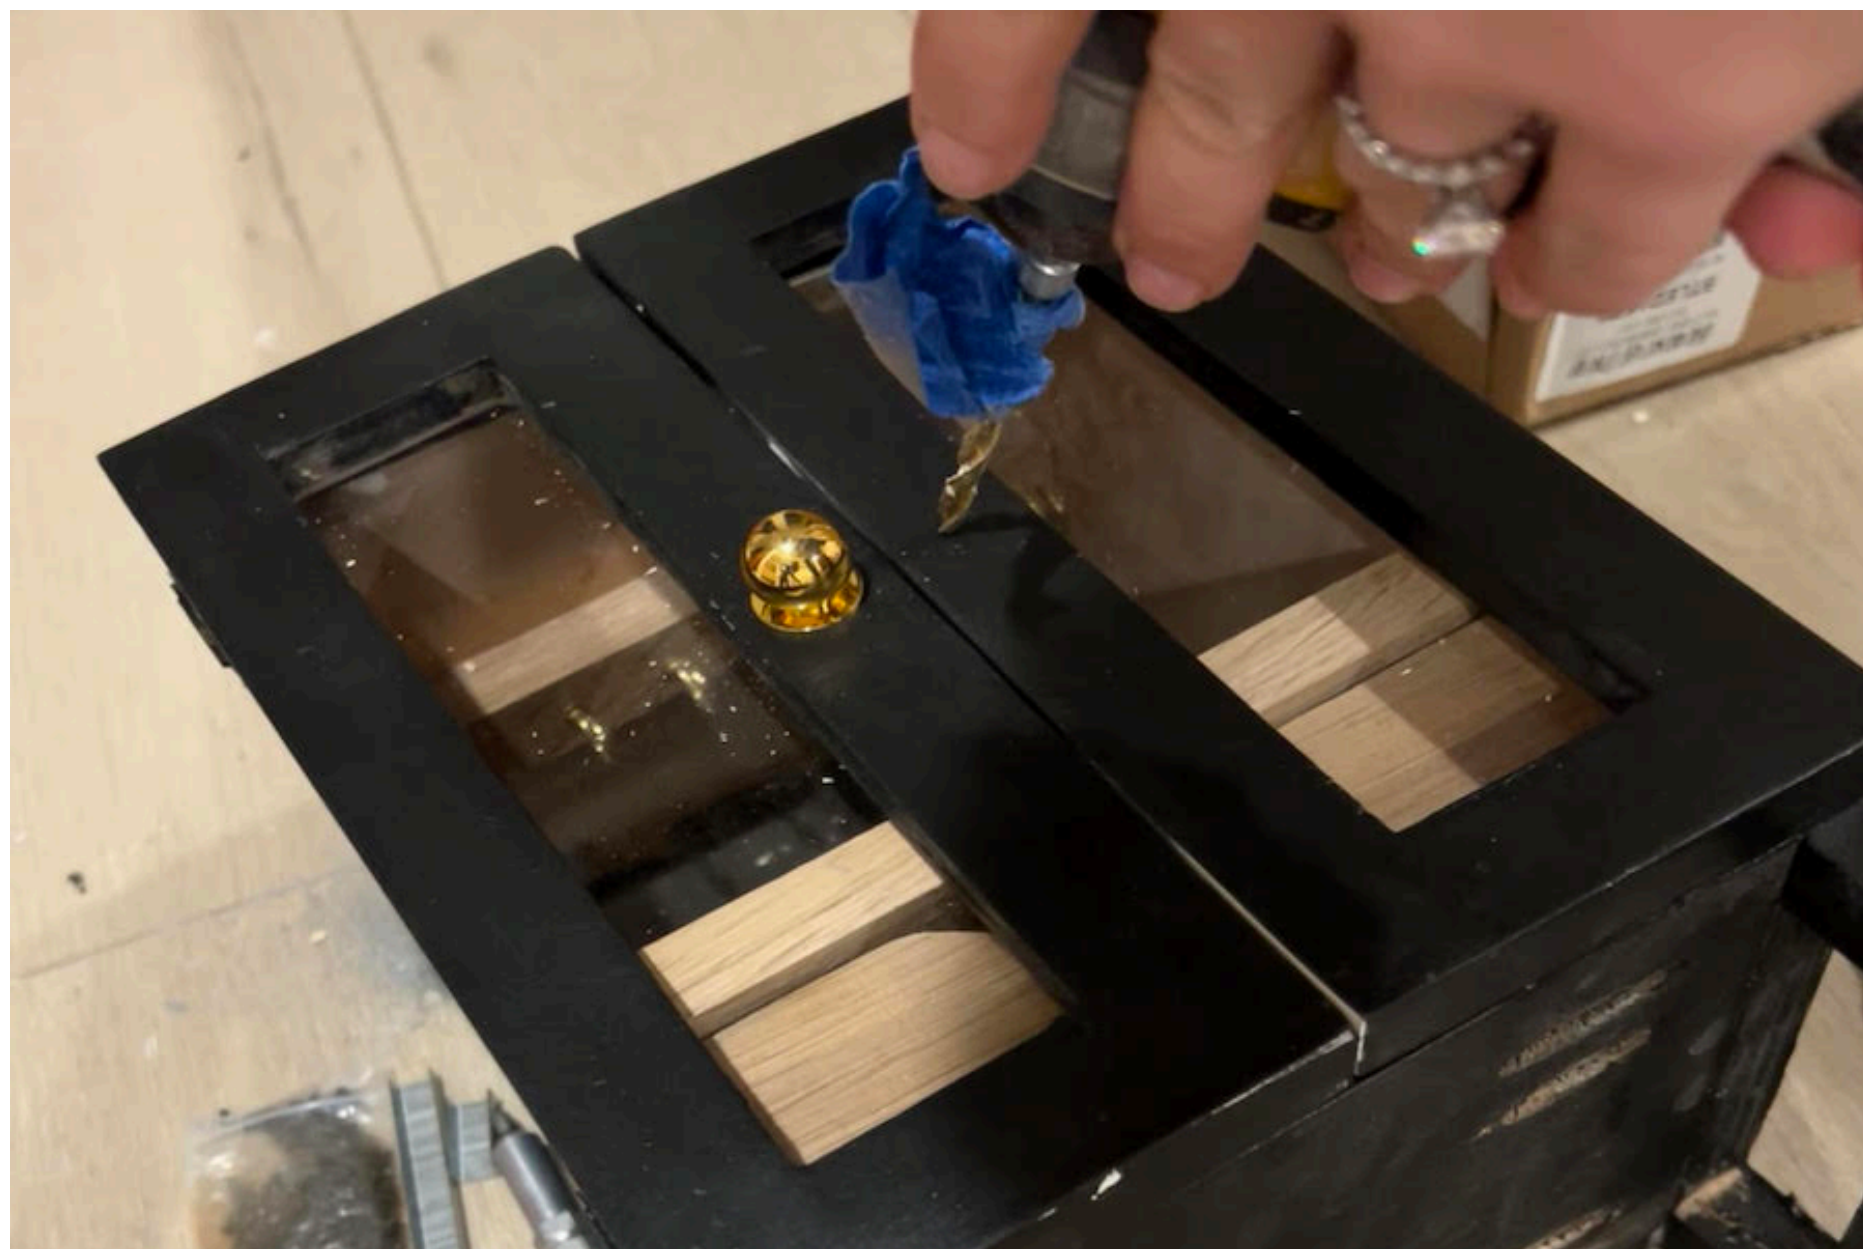

Step twelve

Attach the doors using the small hinges.

13Step thirteen

Attach the knobs by finding the center of your door, drill and screw in.

14Step fourteen

Predrill for the hooks in the necklace holder and screw them in. Attach to the inside top of the jewelry box with pocket holes and glue.

15*Step fifteen

Using your router and a rabbeting bit, rabbet the inside back of the doors.

16Step sixteen

Cut the acrylic or glass to size and fit into the rabbet of the doors. Use glazing points to keep them in place.

17*Step seventeen

Enjoy your new jewelry box!
