

Hot Cocoa Bar

By House Becoming Home

Difficulty

Easy

This simple build perfectly displays all the ingredients for a successful hot chocolate bar. Bring it out for your holiday parties, a winter wedding, or just a fun evening with friends and family. Made primarily from small pieces, you can likely put this together with scraps from other projects.

5Attach Legs to Small Tier Top

Using wood glue and clamps, attach completed legs to the small tier top, 1-1/2" from the edge. Use a carpenter's square to ensure legs are attached at 90 degrees.

6Attach Legs to Medium Tier Top

Using wood glue and clamps, attach completed legs to the medium tier top, 1-1/2" from the edge. Use a carpenter's square to ensure legs are attached at 90 degrees.

7

Attach Legs to Large Tier Top

Using wood glue and clamps, attach completed legs to the large tier top, 1-1/2" from the edge. Use a carpenter's square to ensure legs are attached at 90 degrees.

8

Sand

Sand all faces and the legs of each tier.

9

Stain

Stain all faces and legs of each tier. Once stain is dry, protect with several layers of polyurethane.
